 DEAREST DESCRAMBLER

Hi everybody,
 this is Jason...No...I mean.this is a friend of Jason's ...uh...
 no..I mean.. this is a monkey wearing a sombrero riding a border collie
 bringing Jason a taco.
 But Jason isnt hungry right now because he is recording an album, and being hungry makes you gnarly, and it makes you nail your guitar solos, and piano arpeggios, and taco bits in your teeth is bad for vocal overdubs.
 Anyways....here is a little something for the enjoyment of the folks on Talkscape and whomever else might be interested.
 Behold!!.....THE FAMILY DEMOS
 They are free of course,
 BUT please,please,please donate money to the EMMETT O'LOUGHLIN Fund if you end up enjoying this stuff (Make A Donation bottom below)....or even if you dont. In the end we can all get a little sumthing and feel good about giving a little sumthing as well
 O.K then
 ENJOY!
